MUNICH 2024 BROUGHT TO YOU BY UNDERWOOD HIFI

This is the system that has haunted me for the last year, ever since I had a listen at High End 2023 in Munich. We're talking, of course, of that enchanted room that featured a Yukiseimitsu turntable (almost everyone is calling it just Yuki now), Phasemation electronics and cartridges, and Wolf Von Langa Son speakers. It is an expensive system, to be sure, but it is intimate in scale and provides a very emotional experience each and every time. When people ask me why I love this room so much, I usually tell them that no other exhibit room can pull me into the music as quickly as this one.
